Article #2017-2 Accessory Dwelling Units

Shall the Town vote to amend the Zoning Ordinance as follows: ~~delete~~ the current Section 460 Accessory Uses: Extended Family Accessory Living Unit and ~~replace~~ it with the following new Section 460 Accessory Dwelling Units?

Section 460 ACCESSORY DWELLING UNITS

460:1 The objectives of this section are to:

- a. Provide housing to extended family members and affording all parties the necessary privacy and living arrangements conducive to harmonious habitation in a single family residence;
- b. Provide dwelling units to meet the needs of smaller households, both young and old;
- c. Provide dwelling units in single-family neighborhoods that are appropriate for different housing needs;
- d. Preserve the intent of single-family housing by placing strict physical limitations on size and access to the accessory dwelling unit.
- e. Protect the single family residential character of a neighborhood by ensuring that the accessory dwelling unit is permitted only in an owner-occupied residence and under such conditions as to protect the property values and the health, safety and welfare of the neighborhood and the public.

460:2 An "accessory dwelling unit" (or "ADU") is a residential living unit that is within or attached to a single-family dwelling, and that provides independent living facilities for one or more persons, including provisions for sleeping, eating, cooking, and sanitation on the same parcel of land as the principal dwelling unit it accompanies.

460:3 An Accessory Dwelling Unit shall be allowed in all zoning districts where single family dwellings are permitted. Pursuant to RSA 674:21.II Conditional Use Permit may be granted by the Planning Board upon finding that the proposal complies with all of the following criteria a-k.

Article #2017-3 Signs

Shall the Town vote to amend the Zoning Ordinance Section 470 Signs as shown below?

Section 470 SIGNS

470:1 Purpose. These regulations have been created to permit signage for the following uses: Commercial, Commercial-Industrial, Commercial Professional, Municipal, Residential, reference, directional, temporary, and traffic. While recognizing that esthetics and design quality are difficult to legislate, it is the intent and purpose of this section to preserve the rural beauty of the town as well as the safety and well-being of the inhabitants and, at the same time, allow reasonable signage by regulating their type, number, location, color, illumination and size.

470:2 Definitions

S1 Sign: Any device, fixture, placard or structure that uses any color, form, graphic, illumination, symbol or writing to advertise, announce the purpose of, or identify the purpose of a person or entity or to communicate information of any kind to the public.

T1 Temporary Sign: Any sign that is used only for a limited time, and is not permanently mounted.

470:3 Permit required. No sign identifying or advertising a business shall be erected, hung, altered or replaced without a sign permit. Temporary signs are excluded from this provision. Permit approval is obtained from the Building Inspector. The applicant or his agent must submit a set of plans, to scale, showing the sign, its dimensions, location and method of illumination, as well as the materials and colors to be used in its construction. Upon approval, said permit shall be issued by the Building Inspector after the application fee is paid. Permit fee is determined by the Board of Selectmen. (1994)

470:4 Government Exception. Provisions of this Ordinance shall not apply to conventional directional and identification signs and markers erected by federal, state or local government agencies.

470:5 Compliance. DELETED 1993.

470:6 General Provisions

- a. Only one sign shall be permitted on the immediate premises, except where specifically allowed within this Ordinance.

[Intent: This article will allow the school district to enter into a successor three-year contract with the Timberlane Support Staff Union. The proposed contract ratified by the union and the school board represents a 2% increase in wages and overall costs in year one, a 2.5% increase in year two, and a 2.5% increase in year three.]

Article 5 - Authorization for Special Meeting on Cost Items

Shall the voters of the Timberlane Regional School District, if Article 4 is defeated, authorize the Timberlane Regional School Board to call one special meeting, at its option, to address Article 4 cost items only? (Without this Article the District would have to petition Superior Court for a Special School District Meeting. This saves the District the expense of attorney fees and court costs).
