

Wreaths Across America Day comes to Atkinson, NH

The Atkinson Cemetery is one of over 2100 plus locations worldwide that is registered with the Wreaths Across America Program. It is a program that remembers our fallen Heroes, honors those who served and promotes the value of freedom.

We have 315 veterans including a Congressional Medal of Honor recipient (George Parsons Dow) interred in our town cemetery. Our goal is to place a “Remembrance Wreath” on every veteran grave site in our Cemetery at noon on December 19, 2020.

We will be soliciting local businesses, organizations and individuals in our community to help with our fundraising efforts. Wreath sponsorships are $15 per wreath and must be in by 11/30/2020.

Wreaths Across America (WAA) only accepts checks or credit cards online.

There are several easy ways to participate in this nationwide event. Sponsor and make a wreath donation for the Atkinson Cemetery (NHACAN). Sponsorships can be made in several ways:

- Online – WAA web site <https://www.wreathscrossamerica.org/fundraising> and be sure the sponsorship is directed to the Atkinson NH Cemetery NHACAN There are several Atkinsons so look for the NH location (NHACAN).
- In Person: Bring your check to the Atkinson Community Center, 4 Main Street, Atkinson, NH 03811. Make checks payable to Wreaths Across America. In the Memo line write (NHACAN).
- By Mail: Make your check payable to Wreaths Across America. In the memo line write (NHACAN). Mail to: WAA, P.O. Box 249, Columbia Falls, ME. 04623
